

World Forum for MEDICAL Device in KANSAI 2011

(Feb.21 – 25, 2011 in Osaka Japan)

The World Forum for MEDICAL Device in Kansai 2011 is dedicated to promote the development of innovative medical, diagnostic and analytic devices and businesses via international collaboration. In Japan, the medical, diagnostic, and analytic device industry draws significant attention for its stable growth and new synergy from partnering with companies in other industries. Medical device related companies and institutes with unique technologies and business models will be invited to KANSAI (Greater Osaka) Japan and introduced to important regional players. Companies who are looking for Japanese partners or would like to expand their network with the Japanese medical industry are also encouraged to join this event.
